Wm. J. L. Woods,

Red Oak, Ia.

Dear friend Roy,

I had said, or rather thought, all manner of things about you, because I didn't get a letter but I am going to show a very forgiving nature, and answer immediately. I got your letter on my way to school this morning
and this is afternoon,
and if you need any information on the matter I will just say that it is a "warm day." If you are at work today you have my deepest sympathy. I have just had a regular picnic since I came here, but have had to study a "whole lot." We have the music every afternoon at four o'clock and that just spoils our time for study. We have to put in the time when we do get at it. I worked fifteen problems in Algebra in about ten minutes today. One of the faculty got fired this morning and I am glad of it. I'll tell you about him sometime. So many of the girls had

"company" yesterday. I don't see why you did not come down. I would have given a Y to have seen you yesterday, I was so lonesome. I went to young peoples' meeting and church and was nearly melted by nine o'clock. There was two socials last week, one at Mr. Shriver's here in town and the other out in the country about three miles. I took them both in and had a "way up" time, as they say.

I am going to a lecture this eve. and to a social tomorrow eve. and I haven't any dates

farther than that except Fri. night the closing exercies of Institute and Sat. night I am going home. Yes, I will come on the 9 o'clock
train and will look for you at the depot.

Tomorrow the great
races begin - I suppose you will go, I hope you will have a
good time, but remember the promise you didn't make about betting. Do you remember?)

think you are a good
boy to stay at home

but I don't want you to be so good when I get back. Oh, I am just nearly melted, and there ~~are~~ are three girls here just more than talking but I don't care I am first going to finish this - They are just more than roasting the faculty for giving us such long lessons
 so if I put down a few "cuss" words don't be offended. No, I think Mr. Refner is not very badly smitten with
"Marguerite" and I can see where he is right,

can you?

I am very glad that Mr. Clark got the nomination since it will do no
good to think otherwise.

You need not make any apologies for your letter-writing for the sample I have before me is very interesting. I have read a part of "The Ticked Girl" and think it is very interesting. Say have you gone after that "Kick Carter" book yet?
The one you threw
out of the buggy. Oh
say we had more fun
than a "few" here the other night - We had a concert(?) few danced jig and I played for her - and then we had recitations, and

Mr. Harlow blacked my face with a burned
cork - I was mad, about that too - but I couldn't help it. Well, I declare I have written so much you will have to take a day off to read it I am thinking.
If you don't write a
-gain, I will be home
Sat. night, and you
can give a verbal answer - Supper is

Yours till Saturday eve.
Carrie.
